MRS. WILLIAM CODY PASSES AWAY IN HUB

END COMES AFTER SIX WEEKS OF
LINGERING ILLNESS FOR GROTON LADY

Mrs. W. J. Cody passed away at St. Luke's hospital in Aberdeen, Wednesday evening, July 15, after six weeks of suffering. She had been in poor health for some years past, and at the time of her death lacked four days of being 56 years of age.

Mrs. Cody was cheerful throughout all the weeks of illness, her nurses remarking the courage shown while knowing there was no help, no turning back.

Surviving Mrs. Cody are her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Rollin Cummins of Sioux Falls and Miss Winnifred; ten sisters and brothers, W. J. Sieh of Groton, John and Frank Sieh of Aberdeen and Charles of James; Mrs. R. J. Haire and Mrs. Chas. A. Rasmusen of Putney, S. D.; three sisters from away, Mrs. John Giesen and Mrs. J. C. Corcoran of Minneapolis; Mrs. T. P. McNamara of New Richmond, Wis., and one brother, Lew Sieh, Emerson, Neb., all of whom were in attendance at the funeral; also two brothers and a sister of Mr. Cody, John and son, Eugene, of New Richmond, Wis., Miss Rachel and Edward of Cylon, Wis., and a nephew, Dr. and Mrs. Allan F. Giesen of Starbuck, Minn.

High mass was conducted by Father Shanley, Bernie Barth singing the Requiem with Charles Fuller at the organ. Pall bearers were the five brothers and Edward Cody. Burial was in the family lot in Groton cemetery.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Guhin, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Guhin of Aberdeen, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bunsness of Bath.
